Prefix and Suffix Practice

Preparation for Repeated Use:

1. Print the puzzle pieces on the next two pages and the pages with sentences onto heavy weight paper or cardstock. Construction paper works well if your copier will accept it.
2. Laminate for durability.
3. Cut out the puzzle pieces and store in a Ziploc bag.

Preparation for Single Use:

This exercise may be used as interactive worksheets. Simply make copies of the pages using regular duplicating paper. Students will cut out their own puzzle pieces.

Using the Puzzles:

Students match up two puzzle pieces to form words. Students then read the sentences. They select the best word that will fit into the blank space of the sentence from the words that were made by joining together the puzzle pieces.

A "Student Response Sheet" has also been provided for students to write answers if you would like to use the repeated use version in a learning center, for morning review, or for differentiated instruction.

The practice in this unit is similar to one pictured.

prompt ly	1) Crate your pig, please, Mr. Zuckerman, and report to the judges' booth ____!
brut al	2) Charlotte is fierce, _____, scheming, bloodthirsty everything I don't like. How can I learn to like her, even though she is pretty and, of course, clever?"
over eating	3) As a result of _____, Templeton grew bigger and fatter than any rat you ever saw.
ex pression	4) She was staring at Fern with a worried _____ on her face.
furious ly	5) The fly was beating its wings _____, trying to break loose and free itself.
over hearing	6) Wilbur heard several people make favorable remarks about Uncle's great size. He couldn't help _____ these remarks, and he couldn't help worrying.
