

Collect All Four Sets in the Black History Month Series

Set 1 ~ Abolitionists

Set 2 ~ Activists

Set 3 ~ Entertainers

Set 4 ~ Sports Heroes

Three versions of these cards are offered: one with blanks for students to write their own sentences; one with the sentences provided but with blank spaces for students to write in key words; and one with the answers provided. The third copy of the organizer may be used as an answer key, for differentiated instruction, for students who were absent during instruction, or if you wish for the students to have the sentences already completed.

Instructions:

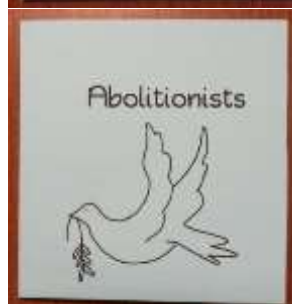

Print the folder on the next page onto colored paper.

Fold the folder on the dotted line as shown in the photo.

Fold the folder a second time so that it folds like a card.

Unfold the folder. Make three lines of glue on the two edges and the center fold on the lower half of the folder.

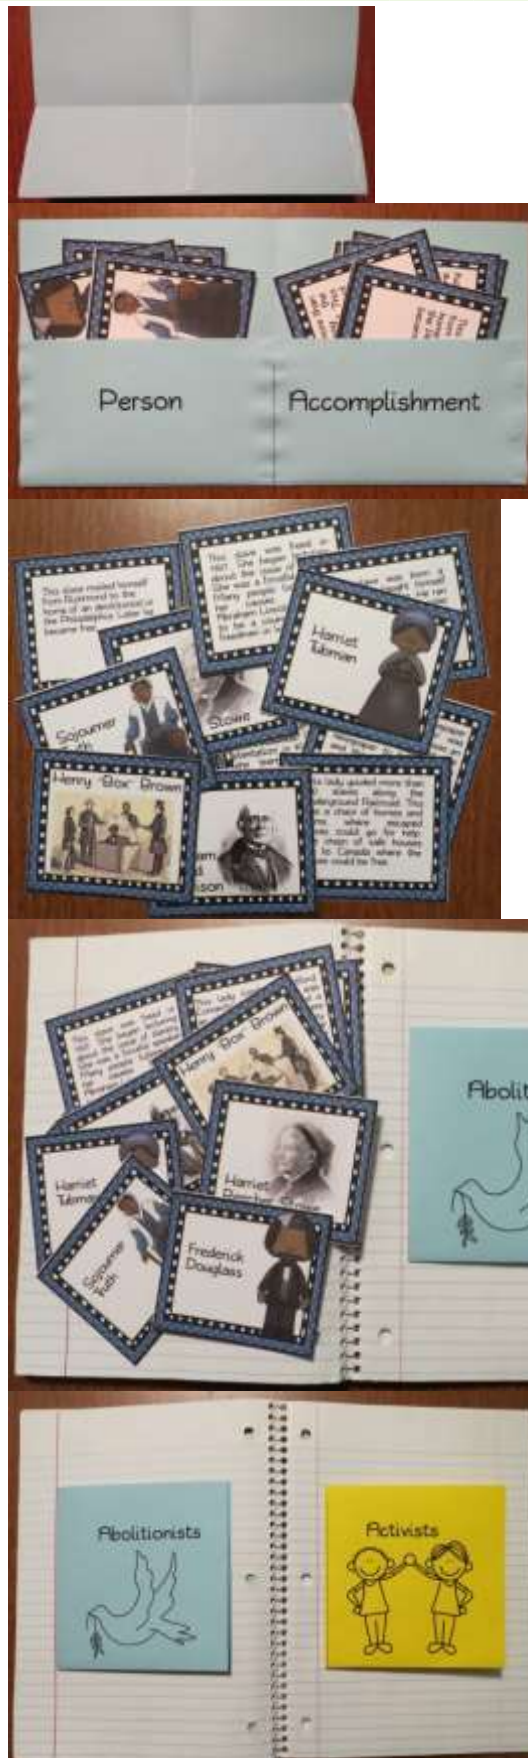

Fold the bottom flap up forming two pockets.

Print the cards onto cardstock. After printing, cut the cards apart.

Students will fill in missing information on the cards depending on which version you have printed.

The folder may be glued into interactive notebooks.

Cards may be used for a variety of matching activities.

Entertainers

Person

Accomplishment

Marian
Anderson

Billie
Holiday

Bill
Pickett

Michael Jackson

Mary
Lou
Williams

Oprah
Winfrey

Marian
Anderson

In _____, she was the first African American to be named a permanent member of the _____ Company. She gave a concert at the _____ Memorial after being denied to perform at _____ Hall by the Daughters of the _____ Revolution.

Billie
Holiday

She began singing professionally in _____ for many bands including those of Benny _____, Teddy _____, Count _____, and Artie _____. During the 1940's she began a _____ career by singing in _____ and _____.

Bill
Pickett

This cowboy, rodeo, and _____ show performer was inducted into the National _____ Cowboy Hall of _____ in _____ for his outstanding career in _____. He invented the technique of _____ to grab cattle by the _____ and wrestle them to the _____.

Michael
Jackson

He became a successful pop singer with his _____ in the 19____'s and ____'s. He later began a solo career. His album _____ (1982), which sold over _____ million copies. He earned the title "King of _____" for his musical style.

Mary
Lou
Williams

This American _____ pianist has created hundreds of compositions _____ and arrangements. She wrote arrangements for many big _____ leaders such as Duke _____ and Benny _____.

Oprah
Winfrey

This lady is an Emmy Award winning television _____ host, _____ and producer. She owns a production _____ company _____. She also published _____ magazine.

Marian
Anderson

In 1955, she was the first African American to be named a permanent member of the Metropolitan Opera Company. She gave a concert at the Lincoln Memorial after being denied to perform at Constitution Hall by the Daughters of the American Revolution.

Billie
Holiday

She began singing professionally in 1930 for many bands including those of Benny Goodman, Teddy Wilson, Count Basie, and Artie Shaw. During the 1940's she began a solo career by singing in nightclubs and theaters.

Bill
Pickett

This cowboy, rodeo, and Wild West show performer was inducted into the National Rodeo Cowboy Hall of Fame in 1971 for his outstanding career in rodeo. He invented the technique of bulldogging to grab cattle by the horns and wrestle them to the ground.

Michael
Jackson

He became a successful pop singer with his brothers in the 1960's and 70's. He later began a solo career. His album Thriller (1982), which sold over 30 million copies. He earned the title "King of Pop" for his musical style.

Mary
Lou
Williams

This American jazz pianist has created hundreds of compositions and arrangements. She wrote arrangements for many big bandleaders such as Duke Ellington and Benny Goodman.

Oprah
Winfrey

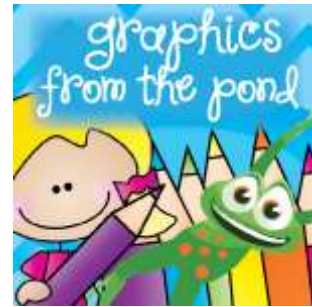

This lady is an Emmy Award winning television talk show host, actress and producer. She owns a production company Harpo. She also published O magazine.

Clipart Credits

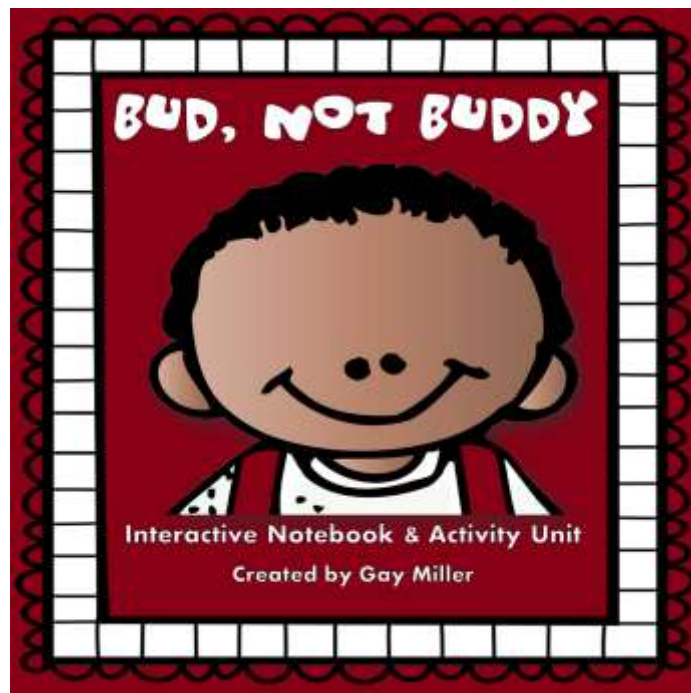

Microsoft Office Clipart Gallery

Phillip Martin

A great way to teach students about the jazz singers in the 1930's is by reading the novel Bud, Not Buddy. Here is a fantastic book unit for doing just that:

Teachers Pay Teachers

<http://www.teacherspayteachers.com/Store/Gay-Miller>

Visit my website at

<http://bookunitteacher.com/>

All four sets of the Black History Month Series may be found on my blog at:

<http://bookunitteacher.com/wp/>

Visit me on Pinterest at

<http://www.pinterest.com/lindagaymiller/>

