

The Wonderful Wizard of Oz

Chapter 24 ~ Home Again

Created by Gay Miller

I'm excited to announce that each Monday over the next 24 weeks; The Wonderful Wizard of Oz Book Unit will be featured in weekly blog posts. Saving each lesson for a novel study is a great option. Since students are so familiar with this well-loved American classic, most chapters can be stand-alone lessons. The Wonderful Wizard of Oz was originally published on May 17, 1900, so it is now in public domain. There is no need to purchase a class set of books because the complete text will be added to the unit plans.

The Wonderful Wizard of Oz By L Frank Baum Chapter 24 - Home Again

Aunt Em had just come out of the house to water the cabbages when she looked up and saw Dorothy running toward her.

"My darling child!" she cried, folding the little girl in her arms and covering her face with kisses. "Where in the world did you come from?"

"From the Land of Oz," said Dorothy gravely. "And here is Toto, too. And oh, Aunt Em! I'm so glad to be at home again!"

Comparing the Book to the Movie Organizer

Two versions of the first page of the organizer are provided depending on the needs of your students.

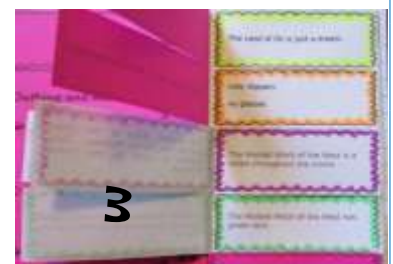

- ❖ Students will come up with their own categories for book and movie differences.
- ❖ The book and movie differences categories are provided.

Instructions:

- 1) Simply copy the first page of the organizer onto colored paper.
- 2) Copy the next onto white copier paper. Note: If students need additional writing space, several copies of this page may be glued together to form a book.
- 3) Trim the outer edges so the organizer will fit into interactive notebooks.
- 4) The first colored page should be cut on the line between the flaps up to the dotted fold line, so that it will open one flap at a time.
- 5) Students will complete the organizer by filling in the missing information.
- 6) Glue the pages together down the middle in the place labeled.

You can stack together as many pages as needed to add extra details. This organizer contains three information pages stacked together.
