Scoot

1. Place one Scoot card on each student's desk. For easier recording, place the cards in numerical order. Give each student one copy of the Scoot Activity Recording Sheet.
2. Each student will read the question on the activity card on his/her desk and will record the answer on the Scoot Activity Recording Sheet. After a length of time (approximately 1 minute), give the signal for the students to scoot to the next desk. The signal may simply be the teacher saying scoot or a noise such as a bell. The procedure repeats at each desk. The activity continues until all students end up at the desks where they began the activity.
3. I recommend going over the pattern for shifting desks and other rules such as being quiet when scooting, etc. before the activity begins.

Mrs. Darling was married in white, and at first she kept the books perfectly, almost gleefully, as if it were a game, not so much as a Brussels sprout was missing; but by and by whole cauliflowers dropped out, and instead of them there were pictures of babies without faces. "It will soon be over, father," John said cheerily, and then he rushed Wendy with the medicine in a glass.

"Yes," said cunning Peter, "but we are rather lonely. You see we have no female companionship."

Tink agreed to travel by hat if it was carried in the hand. John carried it, though she had hoped to be carried by Peter. In his absence things are usually quiet on the island. The fairies take an hour longer in the morning, the beasts attend to their young, the redskins feed heavily for six days and nights, and when pirates and lost boys meet they merely bite their thumbs at each other.
